In the state known for year-round sun, there is still nothing better than a CALIFORNIA SUMMER. Spend this one in style with the latest SILHOUETTES AND WOVENS gracing yards from Palm Desert to Sonoma Valley

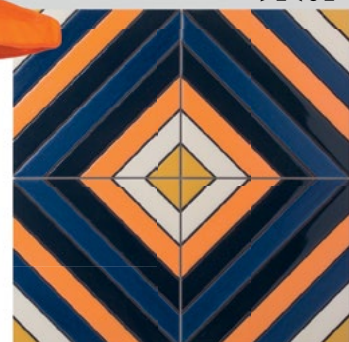

Perfect stacked together for larger outdoor plants or filled with succulents as a single table topper, the hexagonal fiber-cement Hex Planters from Inner Gardens are also available in three sizes. $950-$1,350; innergardens.com.

Santa Barbara Designs has collaborated with photographer Gray Malin on a capsule collection of colorful umbrellas that capture the spirit of classic Mediterranean and 1960s resort design. Shown here in South Beach, from $2,500; graymalin.com; sbumbrella.com.

Fireclay Tile's hand-painted Agrarian Collection is influenced by the bold agricultural landscape of Northern California. Shown here in Grove, from $35/piece; fireclaytile.com.

Mombasa, the latest from Peter Dunham Textiles, is a woven Sunbrella outdoor fabric inspired by a vintage African marriage cloth. $186/yard, retail; hollywoodathome.com.

Serena & Lily's Teak Camp Stool is available in a variety of outdoor-friendly fabrics. Shown here in Sonoma Stripe Blue, $228; serenaandlily.com.

Designed by Ann Marie Vering for RH, the Milano Lounge Chair is crafted from weathered teak with metal joinery. Cushions from $890, frame from $1,895; rh.com.
